To Whom It May Concern:

Over the years, I have had the opportunity to work with Gil Hyatt Construction on several of my McDonald's restaurants in South Florida. I have found this organization to be the essence of quality workmanship & reliability.

Gil Hyatt Construction has met the high standards required by McDonald's Corporation while proficiently providing a superior structural product. They also take great measures to ensure that they perform within or exceed the required time constraints necessary for each job. I highly recommend this company for any construction needs.

Sincerely,
